LOCAL CANDIDATES ISSUED CIVIL PENALTIES AT ENFORCEMENT HEARING

Olympia – Secretary of the Public Disclosure Commission, Francis Martin, found three candidates from Pierce County in violation of state Public Disclosure laws during brief enforcement hearings held Thursday in Olympia.

Candidates are required under state statute to file a Candidate Registration and a Personal Financial Affairs Statement with the Public Disclosure Commission within two weeks of becoming a candidate.

The candidates who were issued a civil penalty had previously been sent a warning letter asking them to comply with the reporting requirements. A letter reminding each candidate of his or her obligation to file was sent on August 17, 2004, and a letter with an opportunity to pay a civil penalty and forego an enforcement hearing was sent on August 27, 2004.

Candidates from Pierce County who were assessed a penalty at the brief enforcement hearing were:

Theodore Haley, candidate for the State House of Representatives in the 26th Legislative District, was found in violation for failure to file both the C-1 and F-1 reports and assessed a civil penalty of $200 with $100 suspended.

Ronald Heslop, candidate for Pierce County District Court Judge, was found in violation for failure to file a Candidate Registration form and assessed a civil penalty of $100 with the entire amount suspended.
